

To + Infinitive vs To Be

Concept	When to Use	Example
To + Infinitive (Purpose)	To indicate the reason or purpose of an action.	I came here to study.
To + Infinitive (After certain verbs)	After verbs such as 'want', 'need', 'decide', 'agree'.	She wants to go home.
To + Infinitive (After adjectives)	To describe a reaction to something or a characteristic.	It's nice to meet you.
Verb "To Be" (State/Identity Description)	To describe a state, identity, profession, or nationality.	She is a student. I am tired.
"To Be" + V-ing (Continuous Tenses)	To describe actions happening at the moment or over a specific period.	They are playing football.
"To Be" + V3 (Passive Voice)	When the action is performed on the subject, not by the subject.	The house was built in